

TEAM™ Approach for Dementia Care Support Training Modules for Frontline Care Partners

Training Titles & Descriptions

A TEAM™ Approach to Dementia Support	Working together as a TEAM™ to deliver Championship Level services to those you are privileged to serve
Successful Dining	Setting the table for success while creating a nurturing mealtime experience. Elevating the culinary experience
Relationship Based ADL's	Using the life-details of those you serve to forge deeper connections while enriching care encounters for both care giver & receiver
3-Minute Activities	Quick ideas for frontline care partners to have impromptu encounters throughout the day with those they serve
Why Do They Do That?	Understanding how Dementia can impact the responses of those in your care. Be a detective & follow their clues
Do You Speak Dementia?	Communication techniques for staff working directly with residents living with Dementia for Championship Level outcomes
Coping with Death &amp; Loss	Understanding how mourning &amp; bereavement impact both care partners and family members after the loss of a loved one
Understanding Dementia Intimacy &amp; Sexuality	Learning about what the terms intimacy and sexuality mean and how those with Dementia can be misunderstood
I'm Still Here!	Dementia does not define the person. As experts , you focus on the remaining skills and capabilities of those you serve
Be a Best Friend	Delivering friendship-based care support for positive outcomes
Effective Communication	Using verbal & non-verbal strategies to communicate effectively with those living with Dementia
Remember the Families	Seeing the resident family members as useful allies and fostering a collaborative communication flow

Powered by

● Endorsed by the National Institute for Dementia Education (NIDE)